

Press release, 5 September 2016, Brno

The KOMA International Comic Festival
2. annual
22–25 September, 2016
Malá Amerika, Brno

We are back in just a few weeks! Now, we are preparing second annual of the Koma International Comic Festival in Brno. The main theme is SPACE! Offering you a selection of Czech and foreigner comic productions you will be connected to inner and outer spaces, close and far away ones, which are above and inside us.

Enjoy comic exhibition of Václav Houf, Tomáš Chlud, Kopřiva and Pláteník, Tabák and Ticho 762 (CZ), Lea Heinrich, Julia Penndorf (D), Marianna Serocka, Norbert Rybarczyk (POL) and others from 4 Visegrad countries, etc.

We are so proud to welcome Maaïke Hartjes (NLD) who come to launch her diary book released in Czech and give a lecture about what is it like to be a comic author.

The Centre for Comic Studies (CZ), Laydeez do Comic (CZ) and new editors of the KIX comic magazin introduce activities and their visions.

Long tradition of the Muriel Award continues! The best Czech comic or the best Czech comic author of 2015? Come and see the Muriel Award ceremony.

The Storytelling will join together comic and live painting. Attend classes of storytelling and show off to the festival audience how good speaker and actor you are!

Be part of live chats, live paintings, launches of book, games, projections workshops and bookshop.

The bands Dalekko or 3000 hodin, the voice of Rita Braga (PRT) and DJ's Zuzana Fuksová and Marie Butula Cichá – music will close every festival day!

The KOMA festival is free to the visitors

We are looking forward to you in Malá Amerika in Brno!

The KOMA Fest is supported by the Statutory City of Brno.
